Take a Seat! In New Haven's Historic Little Theatre on Lincoln Street

Renovated in the late 80's by ACES, The Little Theatre was returned to its original purpose as a proscenium theatre, with added state-of-the-art technical amenities. Twenty years later, it's time to bring back the luster and realize state-of-the-art for today's students and arts organizations that make the Little Theatre the lively community asset that it is.

You can help in this campaign. Your contribution of $250.00 will restore one of the theatre's historic seats to what it was in the 1930's when first installed by the theatre's owner at the time, Major Bowles (of the Original Amateur Hour fame).

The plaque bearing your name will serve as a permanent celebration of your affection for one of this community's most cherished landmarks and your commitment to the strengthening the arts in Greater New Haven.
